TO THE DEMOCRATS OF THE TENTH
CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT—In reply to an article which appeared in the Memphis Avalanche en the 20th of August, cylitoising my attitude in respect to the Congressional canvass, I published a card in which I substantially stated in answer to the solicitation of friends that I was not a candidate for Congress, and that I would not embarrass my friends nor obvinde myself on the ccuncils of the Democratic party, but would make the canvass if I believed the wish was general for me to do so. Since then I have been very senerally requested from all parts of the district to become a candidate, and I, therefore, announce my cantidacy, subject to the action of the Democratic Conventien.
